*FRONTLINE strives to offer an exceptional Weekend at a minimum cost to participants. In order to cover ever increasing conference expenses, we thank you for considering your gift to sustain and grow the ministry.

Helpful Tips for a Great Weekend

Much of our time may be spent outdoors. Meals are provided as well as all other needs for the programmed activities. However, you may want to consider the following:

- Bring a comfortable lawn chair for time around the bon-fire.
- Bring some snacks AND a desert to share. Junk food is welcome!

Other Considerations

- Plan for weather conditions ranging from warm sunny days to chilly evenings, and yes, even rain.
- Plan for your free time on Saturday. Call local attractions to determine schedule and cost.
- Bring your Bible.

Lodging and Accommodations

- You will need sleeping bag or other appropriate bedding
- Bring your personal shower/shaving gear and towel(s)
- An alarm clock, if needed.

... Saved at 14 year old at a Thursday night revival with brother Bob preaching, he has been serving the Lord to the best of his ability ever since. He led the men's ministry at Poplar Level Church of God where he sat as chairman of the board of elders for 6 years, led the morning worship for nine years, and gives all the glory to God, for without Him, none of those things would have happened.

David A. Townsend, 50, was born in Indiana, Pennsylvania. He moved to Texas as a child, following his father's career and eventually his family settled in Kentucky where he currently resides. David works as a maintenance mechanic in Fort Knox for the Ginn Group. In his free time, he enjoys hunting on his family's farm that consists of 80 acres in Bonnieville, Kentucky. He also enjoys fishing in bass tournaments across the state and shares that passion with his two children, Courtney 26 and Bo 17.

The Frontline Ministry Team strives to put together a weekend that is beneficial, informative, fun and relaxing for those attending. Although we try to bring a dynamic speaker and worship leader each year, it is more important to us to provide a weekend that opens up the opportunity for men to gather in an atmosphere that allows for transparent and authentic dialog. Each man that comes quickly understands that the weekend is a time for men to share about life from the perspective that only men can understand, and that we can trust that what is said is held in confidentiality.
