As activities transpire throughout the Frontline Fall Weekend, there will be photos taken and videos recorded for a Highlight Video and other promotional materials connected with Frontline Ministries. If you have an objection to the use of your image please inform the ministry team. At no time will anyone's voice or testimony be used without prior knowledge and permission.

Whitehall Camp and Conference Center is located on 288 acres nestled in the rolling hills of Western Pennsylvania. Whitehall offers a unique setting strategically placed in the midst of God's creation that will provide the ideal setting for teaching, evangelism, fellowship, and recreation. Whitehall has been serving God's people through camping ministry for over 120 years. Whitehall's address is 580 Whitehall Rd. Emlenton, Pa 16373.

The event will begin Friday evening September 18th around 6pm. Food will be provided for all as we get checked in. There is an evening session followed by fellowship around the campfire. Saturday will consist of three sessions with free-time in the afternoon, and an evening fire. We will come to a close Sunday September 20th, after our morning session.

Free-time Saturday afternoon will be unstructured and open for canoeing the Allegheny River, fishing in the lake for fall bass, biking the Allegheny bike trail, relaxing in the autumn setting of Whitehall Camp, or participating in a group activity opportunity (to be announced). Young men 14 and older are welcome when accompanied by an adult.

*FRONTLINE strives to offer an exceptional Weekend at a minimum cost to participants. In order to cover ever increasing conference expenses, we thank you for considering your gift to sustain and grow the ministry.

Helpful Tips for a Great Weekend

Much of our time may be spent outdoors. Meals are provided as well as all other needs for the programmed activities. However, you may want to consider the following:

- Bring a comfortable lawn chair for time around the bon-fire.
- Bring some snacks AND a desert to share. Junk food is welcome!

Other Considerations

- Plan for weather conditions ranging from warm sunny days to chilly evenings, and yes, even rain.
- Plan for your free time on Saturday. Call local attractions to determine schedule and cost.
- Bring your Bible.

Lodging and Accommodations

- You will need to bring a sleeping bag or other appropriate bedding.
- Bring your personal shower/shaving gear.
- Don't forget your own towel(s).
- An alarm clock, if needed.

Semi-Private Rooms - includes two double beds and bathroom.

Rooms will be assigned with two people per room. If preference on roommate please note on registration form

Dorm Rooms - includes a single bed and multiple bunk beds.

Depending on space available, rooms may have as many as seven to a room. If there is preference on roommates please indicate on registration form.

Shower and Restrooms - Fully equipped shower and restroom facilities are available in the dorm and on the site in close proximity to all facilities.

Directions and information for Whitehall Camp and Conference Center can be found at www.whitehallcamp.org or by calling 724-867-6861. For conference information contact Dave Pittman at 724-448-8211, or Randy Hooks at 724-889-6793, or e-mail us at dave@frontlinemensministries.org

SHORT SLEEVE
T-SHIRT

LONG SLEEVE
T-SHIRT

Both of these options are silkscreened with Frontline's shield on the front, and the sword on the back along with our theme for the weekend declaring "Seek fir."

Our polo style shirt features an embroidered version of the Frontline shield while leaving the back untouched for the casual dress look.

The Frontline hoodie features the shield on the front and the sword on the back, both fully embroidered. These can come with or without a full zipper.

Purpose of the Men's Fall Weekend

The Frontline Ministry Team strives to put together a weekend that is beneficial, informative, fun and relaxing for those attending. Although we try to bring a dynamic speaker and worship leader each year, it is more important to us to provide a weekend that opens up the opportunity for men to gather in an atmosphere that allows for transparent and authentic dialog. Each man that comes quickly understands that the weekend is a time for men to share about life from the perspective that only men can understand, and that we can trust that what is said is held in confidentiality.

We hope that you will join us this year and discover the benefits of this fantastic event. Once you experience it, you will find that you will look forward to this time every year.

John K: "The first year I came to the event I had a great time but left somewhat unfulfilled. It was later I realized that I came with an attitude of waiting for God to show up and change my life instead of realizing that He was already there and I needed to open my eyes to see what He was doing around me and join Him in what He was doing. Since then I have been blessed every year and make it a point to attend this event."

Worship Leader

Cliff Kauffman

We welcome Cliff Kauffman back to be our worship leader. We were so blessed last year to have Cliff agree to lead our time in praise and worship. He uses his gift of music to bring us into the presence of God and to help us surrender all the distractions of life as we intimately communicate with the Savior.

Cliff Kaufman is 60 years old and lives in Ellwood City with his wife, Kim. He has 3 daughters, two of which are married, and 4 grandchildren. He has been attending church his whole life and currently attends at First Church of God in Ellwood City. He has been a volunteer worship leader for the past 15 years. He enjoys playing his trumpet and guitar, witnessing about his faith, and praising God with hymns as well as contemporary songs. He has recently begun serving the homeless in Pittsburgh and hopes to continue to serve them through worshiping in the future.

Pastor Travis Zimmerman

Travis L. Zimmerman of A Faithful Dad loves Jesus Christ with all of his heart. Over the past 30 years his speaking style has been described as electric, inspiring, and heart-felt. Travis has committed the past 15 years to memorizing God’s Word, relating Scripture to unique analogies and life events which others have enjoyed hearing him recite at national conferences, national and state homeschool conventions, retreats, camps, churches, and colleges. His theme for every message centers on relationships, beginning with Jesus.

Travis earned a Penn State University Aerospace Engineering B.S. degree with minors in Engineering Mechanics and Military Studies, a Webster University MBA, and a Liberty University MA in Theological Studies. He also served as a United States Air Force officer as well as the national sales manager for Sight & Sound Theatres, and he is a licensed pastor in the Evangelical Free Church of America. With God’s help, Travis has overcome employment challenges, conquered a 16 year addiction, and taken care of his bride, Suzanne, after a horrible accident. Because Travis has known hard times, he is able to relate to many and point others to the One True Mediator, Jesus. Travis, Suzanne, Elizabeth, Koen, Trey, Grant, and Braden live in Hershey, PA. See AFaithfulDad.org for more information.
